

UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect presented at Med2020 conference

George N. Zaimes and Valsasia Iakovoglou presented the poster “UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect: Mapping Sustainability for Riparian Areas, Deltas & Humans through the Collaboration of Universities, Stakeholders and Decision Makers” online at The Mediterranean: Scientific Expertise for Decision-Makers (Med2020) - Climate and environmental research to support sustainable development goals 16-18 November 2020 (<https://med2020.sciencesconf.org/>). The Conference was co-organized by MISTRALS (Mediterranean Integrated Studies at Regional And Local Scales), MedECC (Mediterranean Experts on Climate and environmental Change) and Plan Bleu for the environment and development in the Mediterranean.

THE MEDITERRANEAN : SCIENTIFIC EXPERTISE FOR DECISION-MAKERS

Climate and environmental research to support sustainable development goals

16-17-18 November 2020
ONLINE

Through this presentation initiative of the UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect showcased project that involved universities, stakeholders and decision-makers for the development of plans to sustainably manage riparian areas and deltas utilizing nature-based solutions.

Georges Zaimes

UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect: Mapping
Sustainability for Riparian Areas, Deltas & Humans through the Collaboration of Universities, Stakeholders and Decision Makers

See the poster

Join the author

UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect: Mapping Sustainability for Riparian Areas, Deltas & Humans through the Collaboration of Universities, Stakeholders and Decision-Makers
George Zaimes, Valasia Iakovoglou & Dimitrios Emmanoueloudis

Introduction | Riparian & Deltas | International Projects | National Projects | Master's program | Conclusion

- The UNESCO Chair Con-E-Ect on Conservation & Ecotourism of Riparian & Deltaic Ecosystems was established in 2016
- Headquarters in Drama, Greece, Dept. of Forest & Nat. Environment Sciences, International Hellenic University

Location of Drama, Greece

Main objectives

- Join forces with national, regional and international stakeholders
- Elaborate an International Common Strategy Framework for the Conservation and Ecotourism of Riparian and Deltaic Ecosystems.

Main activities to meet objectives

- Innovative research
- Engagement and involvement of stakeholders
- Training event for professionals and stakeholders
- Awareness events for the general public

Inauguration Ceremony 1st Scientific Meeting

To forge this Framework

- Con-E-Ect is implementing many national and international projects
- Some projects are presented in following slides